

Bo Quickel

Serial entrepreneur and ex-international real estate developer, Bo Quickel is now the leading authority in North Carolina for advocating against the “Demand for Sex Trafficking.”

He is a leadership team member of “Human Trafficking Charlotte” and has been involved in the Abolitionist movement to End Sex Slavery in the USA since early 2012, via the founding of the Non-Profit Vigilante Truth (VT).

The primary focus of “VT” is to radically diminish the Consumer Demand for services provided within the Commercial Sex Trade.

The passionate efforts to reach the goal of ENDING Sex Slavery in the USA is being accomplished through Education, Public Awareness, Hotel John Interventions, Adult Massage Parlor surveillance, and groups of youth that create value in understanding that women are priceless.
