

Justin Reeder

Justin Reeder gave his life to Jesus at 11 years old and felt the call of full-time ministry on his life. He didn't know what that meant until later in life. At 20 years old, he left college to start a business, Superior Wash Southeast. Thirteen years later, Superior Wash Southeast grew to six states with eleven offices across the southeast, washing 8,000+ commercial trucks every week.

On August 20th, he felt God speak to him during prayer: "I have called you to the least of these and to be a voice for the voiceless right here in your city." Over that week, God downloaded a strategy and plan into his heart to begin Love Life. Love Life is a 40-week "Journey of Hope," uniting and mobilizing the church to create a culture of love and life that will bring an end to abortion and the orphan crisis in North Carolina.

In March 2016, Love Life was born. Since then, over 300+ churches have partnered and participated. Over 71,000+ people have mobilized in prayer and fasting outside of Charlotte, Greensboro, Raleigh, and New York City's busiest abortion clinics. 2000+ families have chosen life, followed by a significant drop in people showing up for abortions. 500+ Christians have responded to the call to become a sidewalk counselor, a mentor, foster or adopt a baby, or one of our other connection opportunities to save lives in these cities.

About The Discipleship Group Jason says, "Love Life is guided by the great commission and motivated by the great commandment to train local missionaries and churches to reach their abortion mission fields. We have for too long assumed Christians know how to accomplish the great commission. What Jay has done is clear, simple, and profound in giving Christians a road map for disciple-making. Incorporating Jay Zinn's discipleship model has given me an intentional path for discipling others personally and through our ministry."

Justin currently lives in Charlotte, North Carolina, with his beautiful bride, Jennifer, along with their three children, Jack, Josie & Esther.
